

Institutional Distinctiveness

SNM TRAINING COLLEGE
MOOTHAKUNNAM

SNM Training College, Moothakunnam seamlessly actualize the visionary precept of 'Avanavan Atmasukhathinacharippava Aparanu sukhathinayvarenam' (Let the practices for our well-being be beneficial for others) through its mission 'Vidyakondu Prabudharakuvin' (Be enlightened through education). Our steadfast commitment to cultivate educators steeped in the values of universal brotherhood, cultural reverence, and impactful social responsibility propels us resolutely towards the fulfillment of our overarching vision.

Our institution's essence lies in the fundamental principle of 'Kshema' (welfare), centered on universal peace, harmony, brotherhood, and community well-being. Through diverse activities, we advocate for human progress, generosity, compassion, respect, inclusivity, and mentorship.

PALLIATIVE CARE ASSISTANCE

The college provides opportunities to engage in palliative care by donating essentials, spending meaningful time with patients, nurturing empathy, and fostering human connections. This initiative serves as a significant learning experience, benefiting the community and promoting personal growth among our trainees.

KESADANAM = SNEHADANAM

(HAIR DONATION FOR CANCER PATIENTS)

The college hosts "Kesadanam=Snehadanam," a hair donation drive with Amala Institute of Medical Sciences. Students, teachers, and the community donate hair, symbolizing empathy for cancer patients. This selfless act supports wig distribution at Amala Hospital, nurturing personal growth through dedication to humanitarian values.

CHANGATHI PROGRAM

(Training Program on Befriending)

The Changathi program teaches active listening to prevent self-harm among youth, promotes empathy, and builds a supportive community for mental well-being.

OLD AGE HOME VISITS

The visit to Sreenarayana Sevika Asram transformed our trainees, fostering empathy through interactions with residents and students. Donations, mentorship, and entertainment activities showcased kindness and social responsibility, emphasizing the impact of small acts on well-being.

VISITING THE BUDS REHABILITATION CENTRE FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH MENTAL CHALLENGES

During the visits to the Buds Rehabilitation Centre, the trainees engage in diverse ways—entertainment, daily assistance, and emotional support for mentally challenged individuals. These interactions promote inclusivity, understanding, and compassion.

ARIKE (NEAR TO CHILD)

(Learning Support Project for school students)

എസ് എൻ എം ട്രെയിനിങ് കോളേജ് മുത്തകുന്ന്

കോവിഡ് കാലഘട്ടത്തിൽ പഠനം താമസമാക്കുന്നതിനായി, മാനസിക സഹായം നൽകാനും, കുട്ടികളുടെ മികവ് ക്ഷണിക്കാനും, നിറവ് നൽകാനും അരികെ എസ് എൻ എം ട്രെയിനിങ് കോളേജിന്റെ സർവ്വീസ് ക്യാമ്പസിലുള്ള പദ്ധതി 'അരികെ'.

The teacher trainees conducts classes and actively create educational videos and also provide direct teaching support to weaker students in our model school, fostering educational empowerment and mentorship. Through the "Arike" program, the college supports the students, embodying the values of knowledge sharing and inclusive learning.

INTERVIEWS WITH COMMUNITY MEMBERS

The trainees interview a diverse range of community members, like folk artists, waste management workers and police officers for fostering respect for cultural heritage, empathy, and social awareness. These tailored interactions provide first hand experiences, enriching perspectives and deepening connections with the community

AIDING AMID ADVERSITY

During the COVID-19 pandemic, our institution provided essential aid to Anganwadi and supported flood-affected weavers. We facilitated student-led initiatives such as clothes donations, shelf painting at the hospital, and blood donation drives. These actions showcased solidarity, resilience, and adaptability while emphasizing community support and responsibility.

Our college focuses on nurturing well-rounded individuals, emphasizing academic excellence, emotional balance, moral values, social responsibility, ecological sensitivity, and professional commitment. This holistic approach is integral to our mission, aiming to inspire positive change and contribute to a better world through our students' transformation and embodiment of these principles.
